

Title IX at NWCCD

- If you have experienced sexual discrimination, and/or sexual violence (including sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking) in particular, this brochure includes some things you should know about your Title IX rights.
- NWCCD is committed to maintaining an environment conducive to learning for all students and a professional workplace for its employees; as such, we take active measures against all discrimination, discriminatory harassment, and sexual harassment, including any type of violence or misconduct.

If you believe that you are a victim of sexual discrimination including sexual harassment, sexual misconduct, sexual assault, stalking, dating violence or rape at NWCCD, know that you have the following rights:

- To receive basic information about services designed to assist you
- To recover your losses—to the extent possible— through restitution and the return of property that was seized as evidence when it is no longer needed
- To seek or have sought on your behalf as soon as possible counseling and medical attention at a health center or elsewhere as needed including at the nearest hospital emergency room
- To report the crime to the Campus Police at (SC—307-752-2253 or GC—307-689-7586) or the local Police Department or other law enforcement agency having jurisdiction
- To be informed of the outcome of any disciplinary proceeding held
- To have the option of changing your academic and living situations if so requested and if the changes are reasonably available
- You have the right to request that the College implement a “no-contact” mandate with the alleged perpetrator
- You have the right not to “work it out” with the alleged perpetrator through mediation. NWCCD does not consider mediation to be appropriate in cases involving sexual violence

NWCCD ADVISORS & INVESTIGATORS

June 2017

- Loren Groves, Coordinator, Veterans Services, GC
- Tyler Jensen, Coordinator, Veterans Services, SC
- Brett Burtis, Director, Advising Services, NWCCD
- Susan Serge, Director, Student Affairs, Counseling, & ADA, GC
- Larissa Bonnet, Director, Campus Life & Housing, SC
- Jenni Winter, Director, Athletics, NWCCD
- Jennifer McArthur, Director, Human Resources, NWCCD

- Both parties have the right to be accompanied at all hearings and meetings by the advisor of their choice.
- NWCCD must resolve the complaint based on what College officials believe is more likely than not to have happened based upon an investigation (this is called a preponderance-of-the-evidence standard of proof). NWCCD will not use a higher standard of proof.

The following members of the College community have been specifically trained on Title IX, Clery Act regulations and responding to reports of sexual discrimination and harassment:

NWCCD & Title IX: Know Your Rights

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 prohibits sex discrimination — which includes sexual violence — in educational programs and activities. Students, staff, faculty, and other employees have the right to pursue education, including athletic programs, scholarships, and other activities, free from sex discrimination, including sexual violence, sexual misconduct, stalking and harassment.

If it happens, we need to know about it!

Any student or employee who believes he or she has been the victim of discrimination, discriminatory harassment, or sexual harassment, including any type of violence or sexual misconduct is urged to report the matter.

Students who witness or learn of another person becoming the victim of discrimination, discriminatory harassment, or sexual harassment, including any type of violence or sexual misconduct are also urged to report the matter.

If you see an act of violence, have suspicions that violence is occurring or fear that violence is imminent, call 911 immediately.

NWCCD Will Respond Promptly and Effectively to Sexual Violence

- You have the right to report the incident to NWCCD, have NWCCD investigate what happened, and have your complaint resolved promptly and equitably.
- You have the right to choose to report an incident of sexual violence to College officials and/or local law enforcement. A criminal investigation does not relieve NWCCD of its duty under Title IX to respond promptly and effectively to a complaint of sexual harassment or sexual violence.
- NWCCD has published policies and procedures prohibiting sexual misconduct and for reporting complaints of sex discrimination, including sexual violence.

NWCCD Prohibits Retaliation

- Retaliation against someone who files a complaint or who participates in an investigation is strictly prohibited by College policy and by law.
- You have the right to report any retaliation by College employees, the alleged perpetrator, and/or other students. NWCCD will take strong responsive action if retaliation occurs.

NWCCD Will Provide Remedies as Necessary

- If an investigation reveals that sexual harassment/sexual violence created a hostile environment, NWCCD will take prompt and effective steps reasonably calculated to end the sexual harassment/sexual violence, eliminate the hostile environment, prevent its recurrence, and, as appropriate, remedy its effects.
- Appropriate remedies will generally include disciplinary action against the perpetrator, but may also include remedies to help you get your education back on track. These remedies are in addition to any interim measures you received.
- NWCCD may also determine that it is most appropriate to provide remedies for the broader student population (such as training) or change its services or policies to prevent such incidents from repeating.

Step 1—Preliminary Inquiry

- Complaint is received, Is there a violation of ...
 - Law
 - Yes—Criminal Investigation
 - No—Case sent on to Title IX Investigative process
 - Policy
 - Yes—Assign Investigators
 - No—Notify reporting party results of initial investigation
- Interim measures issued and enforced
- Notice of investigation/alleged violation issued

Step 2—Investigation

- Investigators assigned
- Investigation conducted

Individuals involved in the process have the right to have their advisor with them throughout the entire process.

Step 3—Findings

- Investigation Report submitted and parties are notified
 - Not Responsible Finding
 - Notification of finding to parties
 - Reporting party may request to review the investigation and re-open the investigation and convene a hearing
 - Responsible Finding
 - Responding Student accepts both finding and sanction(s) - process ends
 - Responding student accepts finding but rejects sanction(s) - an administrative conference happens on sanctions only
 - Responding student rejects findings completely—A hearing is convened
 - Responding party accepts findings in part and rejects findings in part—a hearing solely on the disputed allegations is convened
- No Finding of violation
 - The case is closed unless new information arises

Step 4—Appeal

- Both parties have the right to request an appeal on the following grounds:
 - A procedural or substantive error occurred that significantly impacted the outcome of the hearing (e.g. substantiated bias, material deviation from established procedures, etc.).
 - To consider new evidence, unavailable during the original hearing or investigation, that could substantially impact the original finding or sanction. A summary of this new evidence and its potential impact must be included.
 - The sanctions imposed are substantially outside the parameters or guidelines set by the College for this type of offense or the cumulative conduct record of the responding student.
- Appeals must be filed in writing with the Vice President for Student Affairs or conduct officer within three business days of the notice of the outcome of the hearing.
- Appeals will be heard by a three-member panel.
- Appeal decisions are final.
- All parties will be notified of outcomes.
