

Students' Rights and Responsibilities

NWCCD students are responsible for knowing the information, policies, and procedures outlined in this document.

NWCCD email is NWCCD's primary means of communication with students. Students are responsible for reviewing all official NWCCD communication delivered to their NWCCD email address.

NWCCD Students' Rights and Responsibilities enumerate the essential provisions for students' freedom and NWCCD's expectations for students to participate responsibly in the College community. NWCCD has established expectations designed to maximize the learning environment. Each student enrolling in NWCCD assumes an obligation as a responsible member of the NWCCD community to demonstrate conduct compatible with statements of students' rights and responsibilities as follows:

Students' Rights

1. Freedom of student participation in institutional governance. The student body will have clearly defined means to participate in the formulation and application of institutional policy. (i.e. student government)
2. Freedom of access. The facilities and services of the college will be open to all of its enrolled students in accordance with policies and procedures established for use of NWCCD facilities.
3. Protection of freedom of inquiry and expression. The College recognizes the rights of all students to engage in discussion, to exchange thought and opinion, and to speak, write, or publish freely on any subject, in accordance with the guarantees of federal or state constitutions. Students are free to engage in peaceful and orderly protest, demonstration, and picketing which does not disrupt the regular and essential operations of the College.
4. Freedom of association. Students will be free to organize and join associations to promote their common interests in accordance with policies and procedures for the establishment of organized NWCCD teams and clubs.
5. Freedom of student publications. Student editors and managers will be free to develop their own editorial policies and news coverage. The advisor does not review copy unless requested to do so by a staff member. This separation helps protect the institution from legal actions relating to obscenity, criminal or civil libel, or copyright infringement. In addition, the advisor offers ethics training as well as ongoing education to ensure the student newspaper is in compliance with the canons of journalism and journalistic ethics. Specific student publication rights will follow those contained in the current student publication policy and procedures.
