NWCCD Student Handbook

The following will help guide you through the basics of being a student at NWCCD. The complete Code of Conduct can be found at this link NWCCD Student Code of Conduct. As a student you are responsible for knowing and understanding the Code of Conduct and your rights as a student.

Message from the president:

Welcome to NWCCD!

We're very happy you've chosen to pursue your higher education goals here, and we want you to feel right at home.

As you invest in your future, we continue to invest in YOU, by continuing to renovate and expand our facilities, by hiring exceptional faculty, by providing challenging and interesting courses and programs, and by serving you with top-notch staff.

Know that you can count on any of us to assist in making your college experience the best it can be.

Sincerely,

Dr. Walt Tribbley
NWCCD President

Accreditation

Accreditation through the Higher Learning Commission helps to ensure wide acceptance of Sheridan College credits by other colleges and universities. Nursing and Dental programs carry additional professional accreditation.

Advising

NWCCD has professional and faculty advisors to assist students with academic questions. The professional staff provides general advising (by appointment or walk-in) in the Advising Office, located in the Edward A. Whitney Academic Center (SC) or The Main Building (GC). Once a student selects a major, s/he will be assigned a faculty advisor. Advisors assist students in preparing for their college program before the fall and spring semesters. Students are expected to schedule conferences with their academic advisors to discuss their degree/career plans and review academic progress.

It is recommended that students meet with their advisor a minimum of three times per year.

Approximately two weeks after classes start
After mid-terms
Before the next semester's registration

Financial Aid

1. Fill out your FAFSA – the “Free Application for Federal Student Aid” at www.fafsa.gov. This will help you and the school determine what Federal Aid you are eligible for such as the Pell Grant, student loans and student employment. As a student, you must create an FSA ID which is your username and password and is used as your electronic signature for the FAFSA application. If you are reporting parent information on the FAFSA, a parent must also create an FSA ID.
2. Northern Wyoming Community College District (NWCCD) – Sheridan College offers a variety of scholarships to assist students in achieving their educational goals. Upon successful admission into a degree or certificate program at Sheridan College, and once students are registered for classes, we will automatically match student with scholarships for which they may be eligible. Scholarship eligibility may vary based on elements such as hometown, academic program of study, or other extracurricular interests. Other scholarships requiring essays or additional information can also be found at <http://www.sheridan.edu/admissions/financial-aid/scholarships/>
3. Check your student email on The Hub regularly to receive email communication from the Financial Aid Office.

4. Log onto Self-Service to access your Financial Aid Self-Service page to view your financial aid status.
5. Contact the Financial Aid Office with any questions at 307-675-0200. We are here to assist you.
